

Major Achievements of Environmental Protection
Administration, Executive Yuan in November 2019
(Toxic and Chemical Substances Bureau)

1. Held the “2019 Taiwan-Southeast Asia Regional Cooperation Study and Training Program” -HAZMAT first responder training ( FRO ) from November 4 to 8.
2. In order to strengthen the consensus with the National Fire Agency on the work related to poison and chemical hazard rescue, and enhance disaster site hazard assessment, rescue, decision-making and safety operation planning capabilities of fire and environmental protection personnel, the TCSB and the National Fire Agency, Ministry of the Interior co-organized the 2019 “Petrochemical Industry Chemical Hazard Rescue Advanced Training Camp” with a total of 4 sessions ( The first session was from October 22 to 24, the second was from November 5 to 7, the third was from November 12 to 14, and the fourth was from November 19 to 21 ) .
3. The "2019 Toxic Chemical Experts and Scholars Consultation Conference" was held on November 22 to discuss matters related to the addition of DICOVOL, hydrogen fluoride, and amendments to the exempting usage of perfluorooctanesulfonic acid, lithium perfluorooctane sulfonate, and perfluorooctane sulfonyl fluoride, and evaluate the removal of chromium hexacarbonyl columns.