

Major Tasks Performed in March 2022 by the Toxic and Chemical Substances Bureau,
Environmental Protection Administration,
Executive Yuan

1. Completed amendments to the draft of “Prohibited Ingredients for Environmental Agents and Testing Methods” on March 4 and released a press release. Held a discussion meeting on March 21.
2. Held “2022 Conference on Toxic and Concerned Chemical Substances – Handling, Flow Control and Auditing Project” on March 18 and invited local environmental protection agencies to discuss the implementation and contents of “2022 Toxic and Concerned Chemical Substances – Handling, Flow Control and Auditing Project” and “Toxic and Chemical Substance Import Approval, Declaration and Inspection Project – The Example of Triphenyltin Chloride”.
3. According to a resolution reached by the “2021 Homeland Security Policy Committee”, Executive Yuan, an interdepartmental survey and inspection of hazardous substances (materials) is to be launched on March 28. It will involve a preliminary survey and inspection of 1,061 public hazardous material storage sites monitored by firefighting agencies.