

Major Performance of the Chemicals Administration, Ministry of Environment in January 2024

On January 10, the Executive Yuan approved the Administration's "National Chemistry Safety and Resilience Sustainability Establishment Plan" to optimize chemical substance safety management, control handling risks, improve chemical disaster prevention capacity, and enhance emergency response. Interdepartmental cooperation enhances source management, technology prevention, and disaster relief capacity, further safeguarding citizens' safety.